

Kosuth.

Napoleon III and France made war on Austria. Before doing this, Napoleon entered into an alliance with the Hungarian leader for a sympathetic rising in that country. Louis Napoleon broke the compact, however, and concluded an unexpected peace after the battle of Solferino. Kossuth's hopes of Hungarian freedom were thereby doomed once more to be disappointed. A qualified success, however, came after the German and Austrian war, and although Deak's compromise did not, or does not, satisfy Kossuth, it is a great advance upon the condition of things that he staked his life and freedom to improve."

Sleeping cars with bath-rooms are the latest. The Railway News says some of these have been placed on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and tired and dusty travellers who cross the Continent will be able to take a thorough wash at any time during the journey. These cars also have buffets, smoking-rooms, and all the other latest sleeping car improvements which tend to make long-distance journeys comfortable and enjoyable. The Canadian Pacific owns and operates its own "sleepers," and they are built and furnished in a manner almost regardless of expense.
